Annie Malone to hold Press Conference in response to Media Coverage after May Day Parade

Debra Denham, Board Chairman; Richard L. King, agency CEO; members of the Board of Directors and community supporters for the Annie Malone Children & Family Service Center will hold a press conference to address the media attention linking violence after the parade with the Annual Annie Malone May Day Parade.

The conference will take place Thursday, May 21, 2009 at 10:00 A.M. at the administrative building of the Center, 2612 Annie Malone Drive, Saint Louis, MO 63113. All media sources are invited to attend.

Ensuring the safety of our children, staff, volunteers, and the community we serve are our top priority! For over a hundred years, Annie Malone has been an integral part of improving the quality of life for children and families.

The agency provides services for children that have been abused, neglected, and abandoned. Programs and services include residential care (birth to 18), transitional living program (ages 16-21), parenting workshops, a therapeutic school (special education for grades K-12), and an early learning center (6 weeks to 5 ½ years old).
